STAT

Dear Mr. Willheim,

Bill Colby has asked me to drop you a note in reply to your friendly letter of April 10.

Before you go to the trouble of coming East, would you be good enough to sketch out what it is you have in mind.

I might say that it has been our position that we do not think it is appropriate for us to be associated with any project which might be judged to be a public relations endeavor.

You are kind enough to mention Mr. Colby's very tight schedule. I see you have one that looks both as tight and interesting as his.

Sincerely,

/s/ Angus MacLean Thuermer
